Violation: None Noted

General Comments:

This facility is now under new operational ownership. The following was noted:

1. All hot food temperatures monitored met Cal Food Code temperature requirements.
2. All code food holding refrigeration units were in very good operational condition with the exception of the condiment storing unit. That unit was monitored holding at 54 F. Ice formation was noted along the back of the unit. Have this unit either serviced by a service professional or replace with an approved working unit. Contact this unit with an update on this unit within 30 days. Use ice filled ice bin beds for holding condiments until such time as the condiment holding unit is repaired or replaced.
3. Post all provided signage.
4. Food handlers must obtain food handler certification within 60 days. Maintain proof onsite.

The facility changeover is hereby approved. A new food vending permit will be mailed within 5 days.
